Mobile Criminal Intelligence

The Airwave Mobile Criminal Intelligence application enables police officers to access, capture and submit intelligence immediately at the scene.

Available on handheld or vehicle-based devices, the application allows police officers to create, search and retrieve criminal intelligence records on Force databases.
The result is a solution that saves time, reduces administration, improves accuracy, enhances decisions, and puts intelligence in effortless reach of police officers.

Benefits:

Faster access to information

- Rapid access to criminal intelligence in the field ensures officers make better-informed decisions
- New data is quickly available to other officers improving communication

Improves timeliness and accuracy of intelligence

- Quick and easy capture and submission of new criminal intelligence at the point of discovery - reduces 'lost' and 'forgotten' intelligence reports
- Intelligence reports are immediately lodged with analysts on back office systems prior to evaluation – removes paperwork and delays in entry
- Reduces errors in data entry

Improves performance and effectiveness of police officers

- More time on the beat – as no need to return to station to input data
